Security Forum in Krakow will be held for sixteenth time. At the same time it is fifty eighth scientific conference organized by international scientific society CICA which deals with aggression studies (both in its personal and structural scale). LVIII CICA – XVI Security Forum will be taken at the time of pandemic threats. However, we do hope, which seems reasonable, that the pandemic wave ends by warm mid-May. That is why Security Forum will have hybrid form: in-person meeting will come with proper hygienic control and sanitary regime, and at the same time there will be online presentations.

CICA – Security Forum problematic aspects include security from the perspective of individual security subject as well as institutions and collective security subjects in the context of proposed topics presented below.

The conference is held under the patronage of the Rectors of universities important for security research and the Presidents of two scientific societies:
